FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CLINIC MANAGER NOMINATED FOR PRACTICE MANAGER OF THE YEAR

FORT MYERS, FL. – March 18, 2015 – The Gulf Coast Humane Society (GCHS) is pleased to announce that Gloria Letendre, Clinic Manager, has been nominated for the 2015 Veterinary Economics Manager of the Year award sponsored by Veterinary Pet Insurance.

Nominees are chosen for their leadership and collaborative decision-making abilities as well as being able to adapt to change and continued lifelong learning. “We are very proud but not surprised that Gloria has been nominated and recognized for her dedication and leadership abilities,” said Jennifer Galloway, Executive Director of the GCHS.

Winners of the Veterinary Economics Practice Manager of the Year will be awarded with a trip to CVC Kansas City, Aug. 28 – 31, 2015 to participate in exceptional veterinary continuing education. The CVC offers veterinarians, veterinary technicians, practice managers, and team members more ways to learn, engage, and grow than any other industry convention in the U.S. The winner will also be invited to serve on the editorial board of the Veterinary Economics or Firstline magazine for the period of one year.

Gulf Coast Humane Society, located at 2010 Arcadia Street in Fort Myers, was established as the first non-profit animal welfare organization in southwest Florida in 1947. The 501(c)(3) mission is to rescue, provide safe refuge and compassionate care, and find forever homes for abandoned and neglected animals in the area. GCHS only takes in owner surrendered and transfers from other shelters and rescue groups with a high success rate of adoptions. Their veterinary clinic is open to the public and offers a full array of affordable services six days a week. For more information about the events with the Gulf Coast Humane Society call 239-332-0364 or visit www.gulfcoasthumanesociety.org.
