FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DOGS AND UGLY TIES AT YAPPY HOUR

FORT MYERS, FL. – June 8 , 2015 – Join the Gulf Coast Humane Society (GCHS) at the area's largest pet friendly social hour this Friday, June 12 from 6 - 8 p.m. Bring your furry friend out and enjoy the evening at the newly renovated Center Court at the Bell Tower Shops.

GCHS will have adoptable dogs available to meet potential new families, while they celebrate Father's Day with an ugly tie contest. Bring out your furry friend wearing their ugliest tie for a chance to win a gift basket. During the evening, t-shirts will be offered for sale and 100 percent of the proceeds will benefit the GCHS. Penguin Air Cooling & Heating, Valvoline, Animal General Hospital, PetSmart, and Specialized Veterinary Services will be in attendance for the evening's festivities, which will include music provided by the Bell Tower Shops, as well as beer and wine provided by Cru.

Gulf Coast Humane Society, located at 2010 Arcadia Street in Fort Myers, was established as the first non-profit animal welfare organization in southwest Florida in 1947. The 501(c)(3) mission is to rescue, provide safe refuge and compassionate care, and find forever homes for abandoned and neglected animals in the area. GCHS only takes in owner surrendered and transfers from other shelters and rescue groups with a high success rate of adoptions. Their veterinary clinic is open to the public and offers a full array of affordable services six days a week.
